

Who's Watching You?

William J. Powell

As we move into the twenty-first century the notion that “Big Brother is Watching” is readily apparent. Satellites hovering hundreds of miles above the earth can read the license plate number of an unsuspecting motorist. On the downtown streets of major cities and on busy highways, video cameras are in position to record our every move.

The Eyes of Man

In Amsterdam, Netherlands, a local TV show is producing a show called “Big Brother.” Eight persons have agreed to spend 100 days confined to a house shut up without visitors, news, telephone or other communication with the outside. Every move, every meal, every harsh word, is videotaped 24 hours a day. Throughout the house, 59 microphones and 24 television cameras pick up everything the residents do and say. Daily taped activities are then compiled into a half-hour prime-time program that virtually everybody in that country gets to watch each week.

The participants have voluntarily agreed to be on the show as part of a contest. This is an entertainment game of sorts. But when will the game become serious business? The question of the century is: Who’s watching you?

The Eye of God

The scripture says that without the benefit of satellites and video cameras, the Lord sees all that we do. Is the Lord pleased at what he is viewing in your life? The Bible records in Psalm 139, “... Where can I go from Your Spirit? Or where can I flee from your presence? If I ascend into heaven, You are there; If I make my bed in hell, behold, You are there. If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea, even there Your hand shall lead me, and your right hand shall hold me.” The Lord Our Father - not “Big Brother” is the keeper of our soul! May He smile over you and not weep. Surrender all to Him today!
